

Mathematical Physics

Spacetime structure and computer algebra

Thomas Bäckdahl

Chalmers University of Technology, Sweden

In this talk, I will present some computer algebra methods to analyse the structure of a spacetime manifold by constructing conservation laws and symmetry operators. In particular, we study structures of the Kerr spacetime describing a stationary black hole so we can develop tools to prove decay of linear and non-linear fields propagating on that manifold.