

Strong approximation and golden gates

Peter Sarnak

Princeton University, U.S.A.

We discuss the problem of effective approximation of real and p -adic points on affine quadrics and cubics by integral points. The case quadrics in four variables is used to construct optimally efficient universal quantum gates.