

Finding patterns in two-sided Brownian motion

Hermann Thorisson

University of Iceland, Iceland

We consider the problem of finding particular patterns in a realisation of a two-sided standard Brownian motion taking the value zero at time zero. Examples include two-sided Skorohod imbedding, the Brownian bridge and several other patterns, also in planar Brownian motion. The key tool here are recent allocation results in Palm theory.